Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.
 Romans 10:17

In deep, eternal counsel, Before the world was made, Before its deep foundations On nothingness were laid; God purposed us for blessing, And chose us in His Son, To Him to be conformed, When here our course was run. In present, blest acceptance In Him who came to die; In Him who now is seated At Thy right hand in high; In grace, which is unchanging, We stand from day to day, And prove the boundless mercies Which strew our pilgrim way. And when the day of glory Shall burst upon this scene, Dispelling all the darkness Which deep'ning still had been; Oh, then He'll come in brightness, Whom every eye shall see, Arrayed in power and glory, And we shall with Him be. For He who left His glory, To die upon the tree, Will soon complete the story And come again, and we Conformed to His image As known, be brought to know, And with increasing fervour, Our ceaseless praises flow. George West Frazer (1830-1896)	Looking Ahead October 19th Ladies Missionary Day October 22nd, 29th, November 5th Scott Dunkerton October 27th Annual Meeting November 16th Samaritan's Purse Shoe Box Packing & Dinner If the Lord Jehovah makes us wait, let us do so with our whole hearts; for blessed are all they that wait for Him. He is worth waiting for. The waiting itself is beneficial to us: it tries faith, exercises patience, trains submission, and endears the blessing when it comes. The Lord's people have always been a waiting people. Those who do not hope cannot wait; but if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. C.H. Spurgeon Psalm 130:5-6 I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in His word I do hope. ⁶My soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning— Yes, more than those who watch for the morning.
